Purpose

The purpose of this study is to determine which major league first baseman turned the most 3-6-3 double plays.

Data Sources

The information used here was obtained free of charge from and is copyrighted by Retrosheet. Interested parties may contact Retrosheet at www.retrosheet.org.

The available Retrosheet play-by-play data includes both the American and National Leagues for 1916 to 2020.

Additional data was used from www.mlb.com and www.baseball-reference.com.

Definitions

3-6-3 Double Play – the first baseman fields a ground ball and throws to the shortstop to retire the runner on first. The shortstop returns the throw to the first baseman to retire the batter/runner.

Opportunity – all ground balls (including bunts, excluding base hits) fielded by the first baseman with a runner on first (additional runners may be on second and/or third) and less than two outs.

Attempt – all opportunities where the first play by the first baseman is a throw to the shortstop.

Cumulative Results

Filtering out the non-ground balls and base hits, I found:

- 107,239 opportunities
- 37,984 attempts
- 7,865 3-6-3 double plays
- 2,074 players with at least one opportunity

The table below summarizes the results based on the throwing hand of the first baseman:

Individual Results

Albert Pujols has converted the most double plays in a single season with 13 in 2007.

Gil Hodges (1954) and John Olerud (2000) have the single season record for most attempts with 37.

Hodges holds the single season record for most opportunities with 87 in 1954.

The most attempts in a season without turning a 3-6-3 is 21, by Joey Votto in 2011.

Paul Goldschmidt, George McQuinn, and Mickey Vernon have had the most seasons (5) leading the majors in the most 3-6-3 double plays turned. Don Mattingly, Albert Pujols, and George Scott led the majors in four seasons and five players have led in three seasons.

Looking at career totals, Albert Pujols has converted the most, with 81. Keith Hernandez has the most attempts with 332. Todd Helton has the most opportunities with 789. Lee Thomas has the most career attempts without turning the 3-6-3 – 34.

Goldschmidt has converted the highest percentage of double plays, 40.15% (based on a minimum of 100 attempts). Orlando Cepeda is at the bottom of this list, with only 5.76% of attempts converted.
